Welcome Message

IIA-Australia is delighted to invite you to the 2022 South Pacific and Asia Conference (SOPAC®) being held in Sydney from 22 to 24 June which will also celebrate the 70th year Platinum Jubilee Anniversary of the Institute, in Australia.

We are excited to announce that the conference will be offered as a face-to face event for those wishing to have live access to all four streams and the full SOPAC® experience. A virtual option will also be available providing access to one live stream and recordings for other sessions after the event.

Exploring the theme of “Resilience – Relevance – Reliance” the conference program will reflect on the changes which have impacted our world over the last 24 months and how the profession is transitioning through this change now and preparing for the future. With a vast array of issues impacting the profession, the program will be divided into key focus streams with sessions being presented on a range of topics in each subject area.

- > Stream A - Environmental, Social and Governance
- > Stream B - Cyber Security
- > Stream C - Risk Matters
- > Stream D - Internal Audit Function
- > Stream E - People Dynamics
- > Stream F - Professional Skills
- > Stream G - Audit Hot Spots
- > Stream H - Innovation in Audit
- > Stream S - Solution Sessions

Shaped with extensive member consultation, the program will deliver case study and solution-based presentations to provide practical insights on undertaking internal audits of various kinds, addressing contemporary risk management and exploring the professional skills to support the growth of the individual and the profession. The program will also include the opportunity to learn about the newest innovations, tools and trends from our sponsors and exhibitors and the ever important networking opportunities at the social functions.

SOPAC 2022® will provide delegates with up to 17 CPE Hours, with additional hours available for attendance (in person only) at the pre-conference workshops. Also, for thirty days after the event, all delegates (in person and virtual) will have access to view session recordings to catch up on missed sessions.

We look forward to celebrating our 70th year Platinum Jubilee with you at SOPAC® 2022.

Dr Nick Coatsworth

Infectious disease physician

Dr Coatsworth is an expert in health policy, public administration and a practising infectious diseases physician. He held a national role in the Australian response to COVID-19 as Deputy Chief Medical Officer of Australia, becoming one of the most recognised medical spokespeople during the pandemic. Nick engaged the Australian community through a variety of media platforms most notably as the spearhead of the national COVID-19 vaccination campaign.

Nick has had a long history of leadership in medicine. He was Executive Director of the National Critical Care and Trauma Response Centre in Darwin and led the second Australian Medical Assistance Team to the Philippines after Typhoon Haiyan. He oversaw deployments of AusMATs to Vanuatu and Fiji after Cyclone Pam and Winston and trained Australian field staff in Ebola virus treatment in preparation for the 2014/15 epidemic response. He has also served on the board of Careflight Limited, one of Australia's leading aeromedical providers.

Later, he became President of the Australian Section of MSF and served on the Board for two terms.

Nick is now engaged in exploring foreign policy decision making in health through his doctoral thesis at the Australian National University. He is a Clinical Associate Professor at the ANU Medical School and educates young clinicians from medical student through to physician trainee.

Charlie T. Wright CIA

Chief Risk Officer, Jack Henry & Associates and IIA Chairman of the Global Board, 2021–22

Charlie T. Wright is 2021-22 Chairman of The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) Global Board of Directors. In this role, Charlie leads the 17-member Global Board, is chair of the Supervisory Committee, and presides over Global Assembly.

Charlie is the Chief Risk Officer for Jack Henry and Associates, where he oversees information security, enterprise risk management, and internal audit. Prior to joining Jack Henry, Charlie was the national leader of BKD's enterprise risk management practice. Charlie has also served as Vice President of Internal Audit at Devon Energy and General Auditor at American Airlines. Charlie is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), and Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA).

Tim Jarvis AM

Environmental Scientist, Author, Adventurer, Climate Change Advocate

Tim Jarvis AM is an environmental scientist, author, adventurer and public speaker with master's degrees in environmental science and environmental law. He is committed to finding pragmatic solutions to major environmental issues related to climate change and biodiversity loss.

He has worked in sustainability for over 25 years, including 10 years as Senior sustainability adviser to global engineering firm Arup, and as sustainability adviser for multilateral aid agencies including AusAID and the World Bank amongst others. He currently provides strategic and practical sustainability advice to a range of organisations in the insurance, life insurance and built environment sectors.

He is Global Ambassador and Governor of environmental NGO WWF, and founder and presenter of Thin Ice VR – a film project that uses groundbreaking virtual reality to show climate change in Antarctica. Tim is head of the adventure advisory panel of the Australian Geographic Society, on the Society's advisory board, and is the current explorer in residence at the Australian Museum.

Tim has undertaken expeditions to the world's most remote regions including the South Pole, the high Arctic, across Australia's largest desert, the Great Victoria, and retracing the polar journey of Sir Douglas Mawson using only the same gear, equipment and starvation rations as Mawson did in 1913.

Eve Broenland

Simplicity Expert

Simplicity Expert Eve Broenland educates teams and leaders on the effects of information overload and provides pragmatic solutions to overcome the overwhelming influx of data so we can maximise our day-to-day performance.

The complexity we face every day is affecting our ability to operate effectively and Eve combines her strong scientific background with her innate desire to help people make their day easier. Through her diligent research and pragmatic attitude, she's able to provide a simpler approach.

Her Dutch heritage naturally makes her approach clear and direct. Her double Masters Degree in environmental science and marine biology taught her to see how disruptions of our surroundings affect us. Her martial arts training (she owns a school with her husband) drives her commitment to structure, discipline and effectiveness.

Simplicity is the key to maximising performance and Eve is the person to show you how.

Dylan Alcott AO

2022 Australian of the Year
(Guest lunch speaker for in-person only)

Australian of the Year 2022, Dylan Alcott AO, is one of the countries most successful and well recognised Paralympians. In 2021 he became the only male in any form of tennis to win the 'Golden Slam', winning the Australian, French, Wimbledon and US Open Championships, together with his gold medal from the Tokyo Paralympic Games.

At the 2016 Rio Paralympic Games, Dylan Alcott became one of only a few athletes to win two gold medals in two different sports across two different Olympic or Paralympic Games. Dylan won yet another gold medal at the 2020 Tokyo Paralympic games making him the greatest player in wheelchair tennis history.

At the age of 17, Dylan became the youngest ever wheelchair basketball gold medallist at the 2008 Paralympic Games in Beijing, and after gold at the 2010 World Championships, and silver at the London 2012 games, decided to switch sports to wheelchair tennis.

In 2017, Dylan launched the Dylan Alcott Foundation, a foundation created to help young Australians who are struggling to come to terms with their disabilities.

In 2019 Dylan was the Australian Logies 2019 Graham Kennedy Most Popular New Talent Award winner and in 2020, won the Governor's Award Victorian Male Athlete of the Year - Frank Wilkes Award. And if that's not enough, Dylan Alcott was awarded 2022 Victoria Australian of the Year and 2022 Australian of the Year.

Pre-Conference (in person only)

Wednesday, 22 June 2022

1.00pm – 5.30pm      Registration desk open

1.30pm – 5.30pm      Optional Pre-Conference Workshops

WORKSHOP 1

Agile auditing

In today's fast paced business environment, more and more organisations are adopting agile methodologies for speed to market and to effectively conduct business. Moving away from traditional ways of working, changing culture and achieving organisational agility is now a competitive edge. In this new environment internal auditors need to understand how risk is managed and how to provide assurance in activities that utilise agile work practices. This includes adopting agile terminology, processes and reporting techniques to deliver value to our stakeholders.

Key areas to be covered

- > Overview of agile work practices and terminology
- > Recognise the shift from 'risk and control' to 'governance and risk', and why
- > Understanding what new risks agile may bring to the organisation
- > Shifting the audit mindset to the agile mindset – Understanding the process of agile audit methodologies
- > Getting over the waterfall - Practical challenges in applying the agile way of working to internal audit work
- > Reporting and practices that help manage risk in an agile environment

Learning outcomes

- > Understanding what agile auditing is
- > Confirming when to use agile audit techniques
- > Changing tools and methods to suit agile processes
- > Identifying agile business process risks
- > How to use agile practices for internal audits
- > Producing meaningful stakeholder information using agile ways of working

Chris Puschak PMIIA CIA CRMA CGAP, Director, Vincents

WORKSHOP 2

Auditing projects

Almost every organisation will have programs and projects rating high on their risk register, appearing in their audit universe, and therefore, subject to the audit process. But how do we know what to audit, when to audit or who can assist us with our project audit?

Key topics to be covered

- > The internal audit role in projects and programs
- > Project lifecycle and methodologies
- > Project Three Lines Model
- > Project audit approaches
- > Probity auditing
- > Project governance
- > Project assurance
- > Case studies from the field

Learning outcomes

- > Understand why project reporting is flawed
- > Understand approaches to auditing projects and programs
- > Identify how risk materialises within live projects causing them to fail
- > Understand project governance
- > Learn approaches to project assurance
- > Learn approaches to project and program auditing

Riaan Steenekamp PMIIA CIA, Associate Director, Infrastructure Advisory, Aurecon

WORKSHOP 3

Embedding Data Analytics into your audit function

Data analytics delivers a comprehensive method for extracting vital information that can enhance organisational performance. Internal auditors can make use of these tools in a powerful way, enabling intelligence to be gathered smartly and efficiently. Learn the critical aspects of how to effectively integrate data analytics into your audit function with a hands-on approach using tools such as Microsoft Power BI.

Key areas to be covered

- › Data analytics and continuous auditing
- › Should the “second line” have ownership of data analytics? Discussion and analysis
- › How to use data analytics to maximum effect – Process and application
- › Examples of data mining to extract valuable information
- › Design and development of a Continuous Monitoring dashboard using Power BI
- › Implementation, review and continuously enhancing your Continuous Monitoring capabilities

Learning outcomes

- › Understand the best use of data analytics
- › Identify techniques to design, develop and implement data analytics
- › Discover which tools will work for you
- › Apply lessons from case studies, examples and scenarios
- › Develop knowledge of future trends and technologies
- › A hands-on experience in designing, developing and implementing a Continuous Monitoring dashboard using Power BI

Theo Conias PMIIA CIA, Director, Axiar

WORKSHOP 4

Auditing risk culture

With culture continuing to be a key focus for organisations, regulators and stakeholders, it is critical that the assurance function provides active support in ensuring their organisations build and maintain an effective culture. This workshop will explore how to approach this topic in the same systematic manner as other internal audit activities.

Key areas to be covered

- › The difficulties in determining what culture is, its role in risk management and how it is measured
- › Roles and responsibilities related to culture, including the board, internal audit, and other functions
- › Explore different audit methods for assessing culture, and their respective benefits and drawbacks
- › Determine the skills needed by internal auditors to assess and review culture
- › Monitoring and reporting on culture – How to really understand where your organisation is at currently
- › Explore different ways of providing an opinion on culture and how this can be used to drive appropriate behaviours throughout the organisation

Learning outcomes

- › Understand culture from a behavioural perspective
- › How to conduct a cultural risk assessment
- › Understand the practical aspects of cultural assessment
- › Evaluate a range of models for auditing culture
- › Formulate the best approach to assess risk culture in your organisation
- › How to report back on culture and monitor improvement

Elizabeth Arzadon, Director, Kiel Advisory

SCHEDULE AND GENERAL CHANGES

IIA-Australia endeavours to ensure that accurate information is contained in this brochure at time of printing, however program content, speakers and information within this brochure are subject to change without notice. At times it might be necessary to cancel or reschedule a conference after receipt of the confirmation letter. IIA-Australia will provide advance notice of such changes, and in doing so will not be responsible for penalties related to the cancelling or rescheduling of airfares, lodging, etc.

LIABILITY/DISCLAIMER

To the extent permitted by law, IIA-Australia is not responsible for the actions, advice or representations of delegates and speakers of SOPAC® 2022. In completing the registration form, the delegate indemnifies IIA-Australia for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage in connection with any personal accidents, losses or damage to the personal property of delegates and any later substitutes. It is strongly recommended that delegates take out adequate medical, travel and personal insurance prior to commencement of the conference and travel.

COVID SAFE VENUE

The ICC Sydney EventSafe Operating Guide is a set of operating principles enabling the safe running of events in an environment transformed by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

The comprehensive set of protocols spans 16 key areas of event management and integrates best practice from parent group ASM Global's VenueShield – a program of the most advanced hygienic safeguards, informed by public health authorities, medical and industry experts – which is deployed in ASM Global's 325 worldwide facilities. The framework also operates within the safety protocols of Safe Work Australia's Codes of Practices, which underpins how ICC Sydney works under the Work Health Safety law and, more recently, the COVID-19 Safe Workplace Principles. For further information please visit <https://www.iccsydney.com.au/plan/eventsafe>

We strongly encourage delegates to be up to date on their COVID vaccinations.

COVID AND CANCELLATIONS

If you are registered to attend the in-person program and are unwell or in isolation on the day due to COVID we will offer you a refund or credit, less AUD $200.00 administration fee, subject to provision of evidence from the relevant government bodies. A substitute delegate will be accepted at no extra charge, subject to membership status, if advised in writing. If IIA-Australia determines that SOPAC® 2022 will revert to the virtual program only, in person ticket holders will be transferred to the virtual event and will be provided a refund or credit of the difference.
